Raised in a small town of Virginia, Jaylin Randolph overcame a challenging upbringing as the son of a single mother with family members in and out of prison. He found inspiration in actors like Denzel Washington and Jamie Foxx, fueling his dream of a career in entertainment. Jaylin left college to pursue his passion for music, releasing an educational rap song and touring Virginia schools. His journey led him to Atlanta, where he quickly caught the eye of a talent agent and embarked on a successful acting career. Notable roles include appearances in Peacock's "Boxed In 2" and TV One's "Fatal Attraction." Beyond acting, Jaylin gained a substantial following with comedic content under the name @jiggymofficial with over 300k+ followers on all platforms. He's an active individual who enjoys working out, bartending, bicycling, and boxing. Jaylin remains humble, valuing hard work, resilience, and the power of inspiration as he continues to inspire others through his journey from adversity to success.
